LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

Christ the Life of the World,

as we travel through this Lenten journey, lead us from ignorance to enlightenment, from shadows to brightness, from death to life.

CENTERING FOR WORSHIP

MV #79 (Refrain)

"Spirit, Open My Heart"

*Spirit, open my heart
to the joy and pain of living.
As you love may I love,
in receiving and in giving,
Spirit, open my heart.*

CALL TO WORSHIP (responsively)

...Carrying heavy loads, travelling light;
walking in fear, living in faith—
welcome...

We come to worship with all that's good in our lives,
with all that hurts and hinders us,
with past and present in us,
and the future before us.

We come to find our way home.

VU #271

"There's a Wideness in God's Mercy"

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in God's justice which is more than liberty.

There is no place where earth's sorrows
are more felt than up in heaven;
there is no place where earth's failings have such gracious judgement given.

There is plentiful redemption
in the blood that Christ has shed;
there is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the Head.

Troubled souls, why will you scatter
like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why will you wander
from a love so true and deep?

For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind,
and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.

VU #296

"This Is God's Wondrous World"

This is God's wondrous world,
and to my listening ears
all nature sings, and round me rings
the music of the spheres.
This is God's wondrous world;
I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas
God's hand the wonders wrought.

This is God's wondrous world:
the birds their carols raise;
the morning light, the lily white declare their Maker's praise.
This is God's wondrous world:
God shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass or mountain pass,
God's voice speaks everywhere.

This is God's wondrous world:
O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the ruler yet.
This is God's wondrous world:
why should my heart be sad?
Let voices sing, let the heavens ring:
God reigns, let earth be glad!

"To Show by Touch and Word"

To show by touch and word devotion to the earth,
to hold in full regard all life that comes to birth,
we need, O God, the will to find the good you had of old in mind.

Renew our minds to choose the things that matter most,
our hearts to long for truth till pride of self is lost.
For every challenge that we face
we need your guidance and your grace.

Let love from day to day be yardstick, rule, and norm,
and let our lives portray your word in human form.
Now come with us that we may have your wits about us where we live.

*BLESSING

*CHORAL CLOSING "An Old Irish Blessing"

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be ever at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face
and the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again, and until we meet again,
May you be held in the hollow of God's hand.

COVID-19 Procedures Update

As we have all worked so diligently to keep our community and our First United Church family as safe as possible, we are moving cautiously to reduce the pandemic restrictions. The plan our COVID-19 Response Team has developed is as follows:

Effective March 14, 2022:

- Prior registration to attend worship services is discontinued.
- Signing-in at the entrances is discontinued.
- Hand sanitization will continue at the entrances.
- We welcome and encourage all who would prefer to wear masks and continue to maintain physical distancing to do so. Wearing of masks and physical distancing are no longer requirements.
- If you have symptoms of a respiratory illness, please do not attend the church.
- Deep cleaning of the church building will continue, and our ventilation system will remain turned on during the Services and office hours.
- The Minister will not wear a mask while in the Chancel, and speakers may choose not to wear a mask.
- Congregational singing and occasional soloists will continue – with and without masks depending on the person's preference.

Effective later in April if all goes well:

In addition to the above,

- The choir may return!
- Hymnbooks will be available in the chairs and pews.
- Refreshments after church may occur, possibly outside initially.

Many, many thanks to all of you for your continued support, encouragement and eye-smiles during these past two years. We are indeed a people of love and hope!!!

SCRIPTURE READING – NEW REVISED STANDARD VERSION

LUKE 15:1-3, 11B-32

1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him.

2 And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

3 So he told them this parable:

11 Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons.

12 The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them.

13 A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living.

14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need.

15 So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs.

16 He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.

17 But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger!

18 I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;

19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.'"

20 So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.

21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

23 And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;

24 for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

25 "Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on.

27 He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'

28 Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.

29 But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends.

30 But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!'

31 Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

32 But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"
